Our Instructors

Mr. Alexander Nehmzow

BA, History (Distinction), Yale University

Alexander's education at Yale focused on writing-intensive coursework, culminating in a senior thesis, that impressed upon him the importance of communication and critical thinking. Alexander also has a long-standing interest in creative writing, and he hopes to translate his love of writing into helping students with their college applications. He enjoys helping his students reflect on their own strengths, idiosyncrasies, values, and long-term goals, and articulate these in their essays.

Ms. Lishani Ramanayake

BA, Literature (Honours), Yale-NUS College

Having earned her B.A in Literature (with Honours) from Yale-NUS College, Lishani spent two years as a Writing Tutor at the Yale-NUS College Writers' Centre. She has written for national newspapers and has had her poetry and non-fiction prose published in the U.S and Singapore. While studying at Yale-NUS College, Lishani worked as a Student Associate for the Yale-NUS College Admissions Office, where she conducted various student panels on tips on how best to navigate the admissions process.
